On the proposition of the President of the Executive Committee, seconded by the Grand Recorder, and carried nem con by the Companions present, Messrs Crowe Clark Whitehill LLP, Chartered Accountants and Registered Auditors, were re-appointed as Auditors to Grand Council.

15. ADDRESS BY THE MOST ILLUSTRIOUS GRAND MASTER

The Most Illustrious Grand Master addressed the Companions as follows:

‘Companions, I am so delighted to see so many of you at Grand Council today, and I bid you all a very warm welcome. It is most heartening that you have been able to travel to London to participate in what I am confident will be a happy and joyous occasion, and that many of you will be able to join us at our celebratory luncheon afterwards.

I know that I speak on behalf of you all when I congratulate all the Companions whom I have today appointed to or promoted in Grand Rank.

To those Companions, I will say that our Annual Investiture should be a major milestone in your Cryptic careers and I trust that you will remember today for a long time to come. You should need no reminding that your new status brings new responsibilities and I wish you well as you continue to serve both your Councils and Grand Council and, I hope, play your part in serving society at large.

It would seem logical to begin my address with a glance at the past year, my first year in office, which has been an eventful one. It hardly seems possible that twelve months has elapsed since that wonderful day last April when I was installed as your Grand Master.

I wouldn't say that my first year has been a "baptism of fire", but has certainly been a busy one. Together with a team of faithful and diligent Active Grand Officers of the Year, most of whom travel at their own expense, we have consecrated no less than six Councils. These were in Crook (Durham); Southport and Leyland (Lancashire); London; St Albans (Hertfordshire); and Beverley in the District of North and East Yorkshire.

I am also delighted to say that four other Consecrations are already in the planning stages and will take place in Newark, Durham, London and Barcelona, later this year.

During last year I also installed three new District Grand Masters and will tell you more about that shortly.

The usual custom practised by Keith Hind Council of putting on a demonstration changed last year and I am very grateful for that, as it allowed a personal friend of mine the opportunity of being chosen as a Select Master. The ceremony took place in that Council, under the Banner of McMahon Council and it was a very impressive occasion. I must thank the TIM, Right Illustrious Companion Vincent Driver, together with all the members of both Councils. I was further privileged to be with them again in January when the same TIM skilfully installed his successor, Right Illustrious Companion John Harvey, my District Grand Master for Northumberland. So, all in all, Keith Hind Council has had a very good year.

I mentioned earlier the three new District Grand Masters and I will now ask them to stand and be recognised as I introduce them. In July last year I was privileged to install Right Illustrious Companion Ken Downes as District Grand Master for Wyvern – this was in consequence of the retirement of Right Illustrious Companion Eric Bourne.

In early October, I had the pleasure of installing Right Illustrious Companion Trevor Sharpe as District Grand Master for Kent following the retirement of Right Illustrious Companion Roger O'Brien.

And in November I was pleased to install Right Illustrious Companion Bernard Marchant as District Grand Master for Sussex after the retirement of Right Illustrious Companion Brian Wareham.

Not forgetting that in August Very Illustrious Companion Paul Knight was installed as District Grand Master for South Africa by his predecessor, Right Illustrious Companion Pieter Johannes Wessels.

Companions, I offered to nip out there and do it myself, but such generosity of heart fell upon deaf ears at 86 St James's!

During the initial stages of all those installation ceremonies I paid tribute to the outgoing District Grand Masters, and I now do so again to thank them for their extremely valuable contribution to the Order and for the legacy of good practice that they have bequeathed to their respective Districts. As for the new boys, I wish you every success in your endeavours and will monitor your progress with interest!

I look forward to further Installations during the year as they may occur, which will commence with East Midlands in July. And thus I extend my personal thanks and the gratitude of the Order to Right Illustrious Companion Michel Jolley who has indicated his intention to retire from office this year. If all goes to plan he will be succeeded by Very Illustrious Companion Martin Wilson.

The Silver Trowel and Excellent Masters Degrees both continue to act as magnets for eager and suitably qualified candidates. The Silver Trowel, now promulgated out to Districts, is continuing to maintain its momentum. I express my admiration of all the Councils that undertook the task of conferring the Degree during the year; the office of King David is pivotal to the ceremony and demands an excellent standard of ritual.

Grafton Council of Anointed Kings No. 16 still looks after London, the Home Counties and, of course, overseas. Their remit also includes the Excellent Masters Degree. I am delighted to inform you that the ceremony in Bristol, to which I alluded to in my address last year, has now actually taken place – yes, we have now completed our first away fixture! In February, a team from Grafton travelled to Bristol and conferred the Excellent Masters Degree on 19 candidates in the “Veils” Temple at Freemasons’ Hall, Bristol, followed by the Silver Trowel in the R.A. Temple. It was an amazing experience.

I am truly indebted to the Grand Superintendent, M.E. Companion Alan Vaughan, through whose auspices it was made possible. But, most of all, I applaud the members of Grafton for their devotion to the Order and particularly to these two special degrees. And as far as the Bristol trip is concerned, I thank Ian Currans as the Right Worshipful and Excellent Master, and my Grand Principal Conductor of the Work, John Chambers, as King David, for two remarkably fine performances – yet again!

For the time being, the Excellent Masters degree will continue to be conferred in London where we have the required equipment. However, if a suitable venue can be identified in somewhere like York, Sheffield or Leeds, I am prepared to explore the possibility of transporting our kit to the north to confer the degree there, thus avoiding the journey to London. So I ask the District Grand Masters in that neck of the woods to give it some thought and come up with venues and dates. I will leave that ball in your court!

I intimated earlier that the Silver Trowel and Excellent Masters Degrees were continuing to flourish and progress in leaps and bounds. And I can tell you that since last year’s meeting of Grand Council, 104 Companions have received the Silver Trowel with 68 taking the Excellent Masters Degree, together with another 9 Companions who affiliated. Success indeed, however, I still do not intend to change the qualification for either.

There have been no exotic ventures to far flung countries of late, but the Deputy Grand Recorder and I were made most welcome in Athens in February, at the Annual Meeting of the Grand Council of Greece, where we witnessed the Installation of the new Grand Master who, I am delighted to say, is with us today.

Whereas it has been a brilliant Masonic year, personally I have suffered a somewhat “Annus Horribilis” as did the Queen once. The life changing injury that my wife suffered last summer obviously brought with it much personal distress and associated pressure. Thankfully she is now on the road to recovery, but that road will be a long and arduous journey. My family is small but has been incredibly supportive. But the Masonic family is huge and just as caring. And I would like to take this opportunity to say thank you, on her behalf, for all the many tokens of good wishes, encouragement and support from Districts, from Councils and from individuals during her time in hospital and still now.

I must especially mention the generous donation raised in her name by the District of Northumberland, the Allied Masonic District of Durham and the Mark Province of London, that enabled the purchase of vital equipment which will greatly benefit patients now being treated in the rehabilitation unit where Janet spent much of last year.

And now onto much happier things: I would now like to introduce our Guests from other constitutions, overseas visitors and Heads of our own domestic Orders. Companions, please save your enthusiastic and welcoming applause until I have completed the list.

From the Grand Council of Greece, Most Illustrious Companion Athanasios Lempesis, the Grand Master;

From the Grand Council of South East Asia, Right Illustrious Companion Dr Boo Khean Khoo, a District Grand Master and a recipient today.

And from our own Districts:

From the South and East Caribbean, the Past District Grand Master, the ubiquitous Right Illustrious Companion Derek Hugh, together with Illustrious Companion John Aspinall, MBE, P.G.Cond.C., also a recipient today;

From Jamaica and The Cayman Islands, the Grand Inspector, Right Illustrious Companion Graham Smith, P.Dist.G.M. for Kent, with whom I have a passing acquaintance!

From South Africa, one of the recipients today, Illustrious Companion Albert Spencer, Past District Grand Chaplain, and now Past Grand Standard Bearer.

From Unattached Councils:

From The Netherlands Council No. 163, Illustrious Companion Theo Barrau, a recipient of Past Grand Sword Bearer today; from Grafton Council of Anointed Kings No. 16 (UK), Very Illustrious Companion David Rose, Past Grand Lecturer, a recipient today; from Indalo Council No. 284 (Spain), Illustrious Companion Eddy Bamford, P.A.G.D.C., also a recipient today; and from Elche Council No. 297 (Spain), Illustrious Companion Stephen Preston.

Thank you all for travelling significant distances to be with us.

Now from Sister Orders:

Right Illustrious Companion Richard Wallis – Pro Grand Master of the G.L.M.M.M.;

Right Illustrious Companion Graham Flight – Grand Sovereign of the Red Cross of Constantine;

Right Illustrious Companion Tom Jackson – Grand Master of the Allied Masonic Degrees;

Right Illustrious Companion Paul Clement – Grand Supreme Ruler of the Order of the Secret Monitor;

Right Illustrious Companion Andrew Sweeney – Grand Summus of the Ancient and Masonic Order of the Scarlet Cord;

Right Illustrious Companion Nigel Willows – First Grand Master Mason of the Worshipful Society of Operative Freemasons;

Companion Christopher Maiden – Grand High Priest of the Holy Royal Arch Knight Templar Priests and Order of Holy Wisdom;

Right Illustrious Companion Michael Herbert, Past Deputy Grand Master – Grand Master of the Grand Priory of the Knights Beneficent of the Holy City;

And Right Illustrious Companion John Paternoster – Supreme Magus of the Societas Rosicruciana in Anglia.

There also one another I would like to mention: Right Illustrious Companion Michael Spencer, P.G.P.C.W., upon whom has been bestowed the Order of Service to Cryptic Masonry. Michael, we know that you are not in the rudest of health and are about to start a programme of treatment soon. We all wish you well and I am grateful that you made the effort to be here today. It would not have been the same without you.

Now Companions let us welcome them all.

Once again, all of us owe a vote of thanks to the Grand Recorder and his staff for all their industry and endeavour in the preparation for this meeting; to the Grand Director of Ceremonies and his team of Deputies, Assistants and Manciples, and the Grand Sentinel for such a splendid execution of all the ceremonial aspects; and to John Vasquez and the staff here at F.M.H. I would especially like to comment most favourably on the exceptional delivery of all the proclamations today.

When it comes to gratitude I thank all my District Grand Masters, not only for all being here today and from all parts of England and Wales, but I thank you also for the sterling service you give to the Order all year round. You are all different, but are all delightful, splendid chaps and I could not do without you.

Companions, in approaching the end of what I shall be saying this afternoon, I want to make special reference to the approaching retirement of our Grand Recorder. As you may well be aware, Right Illustrious Companion Angus Hannagan will retire in June after a distinguished career as both Deputy Grand Recorder and Grand Recorder. During the past five years Companion Angus has been at the administrative forefront of the changes and progressions in our Order and the challenges we have faced. He has been a fine ambassador for Cryptic Masonry, both nationally and internationally. His enthusiasm and example will leave his successor with an excellent legacy to build upon and I welcome this opportunity to express the warm thanks of all Cryptic Masons for all that he has done for us. We wish him and Sue every happiness in his retirement.

Our Order continues to be talked about and its popularity is still increasing. So I urge you to build upon that ground swell of interest and make sure that the Order is readily available to all Royal Arch Companions and Mark Master Masons who show an interest – with or without some gentle persuasion!

I remain convinced that we can only find such success by investing time and care in keeping our Craft Lodges and Royal Arch Chapters thriving and as productive as possible. A fitting challenge in the Craft's tercentenary year and we congratulate them on reaching this significant milestone in their history. In short, Companions, success for them must mean success for us.

On that subject, a certain Brazilian football star going by the name of Pelé once said: "Success is no accident; it is hard work, perseverance, learning, studying, sacrifice and, most of all, the love of what you are doing".

Companions, continue to enjoy your Cryptic Masonry – it is very special, please keep it that way. And, finally, Companions, be of one mind, live in peace and may the God of love and mercy delight to dwell amongst you and bless you forever more. Thank you.

16. ANY OTHER BUSINESS

The Most Illustrious Grand Master enquired as to whether the Grand Recorder had any further business to bring before Grand Council and the Grand Recorder replied that there was none. The Most Illustrious Grand Master then stated that there was one further item of business and proceeded to promote the Grand Recorder to the rank of Past Grand Chancellor.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT TO THE MEMBERS OF THE GRAND COUNCIL OF ROYAL AND SELECT MASTERS

We have audited the financial statements of The Grand Council of the Order of Royal and Select Masters for the year ended 31 August 2016 set out on pages 20 to 23. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and FRS102, the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland, applicable to smaller entities.

This report is made solely to The Grand Council of the Order of Royal and Select Masters and its members, as a body. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the members those matters we are required to state to them in an auditor's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than The Grand Council of the Order of Royal and Select Masters and its members as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinion we have formed.

Respective responsibilities of the Executive Committee and auditor

The Executive Committee is responsible for the control and management of all the property and the finances of The Grand Council of the Order of Royal and Select Masters including for the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view. In preparing the financial statements the Executive Committee is required to select suitable accounting policies and to apply them consistently, make judgements and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent, and prepare the financial statements on a going concern unless this is inappropriate. Our responsibility is to audit and express an opinion on the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and International Standards on Auditing (UK and Ireland). Those standards require us to comply with the Auditing Practices Board's Ethical Standards for Auditors.

Scope of the audit of the financial statements

An audit involves obtaining evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements sufficient to give reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or error. This includes an assessment of: whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the circumstances of The Grand Council of the Order of Royal and Select Masters and have been consistently applied and adequately disclosed; the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by the Executive Committee; and the overall presentation of the financial statements.

In addition, we read all the financial and non-financial information in the Executive Committee Report to identify material inconsistencies with the audited financial statements and to identify any information that is apparently materially incorrect based on, or materially inconsistent with, the knowledge acquired by us in the course of performing the audit. If we become aware of any apparent material misstatements or inconsistencies we consider the implications for our report.

Opinion on financial statements

In our opinion, the financial statements:

- give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of The Grand Council of the Order of Royal and Select Masters as at 31 August 2016 and of its surplus for the year then ended; and
- have been prepared in accordance with FRS102, the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland, applicable to smaller entities.
